OPPORTUNITY FOR ATTENDANCE AT MAYO CLINIC LABORATORY SURGICAL PATHOLOGY COURSE IN LONDON, UK:

The Mayo Clinic, in partnership with the Liberian Association of Arizona is offering an opportunity to Liberian pathologist to study abroad. Funds are available through the Geraldine C. Zeiler Endowed Professorship in Cytopathology (Dr. Henry D. Tazelaar, current recipient) to attend the Mayo Clinic Laboratory course in London UK May 5-8, 2020. Click here for details: (https://news.mayocliniclabs.com/edu-conference/23rd-international-surgical-pathology-symposium/)

I. Financial support will include:

- Round trip airfare from Monrovia to London;
- Meeting registration fee;
- Round trip hotel transfer (receipts will be required for reimbursement);
- Hotel (receipts will be required for reimbursement);
- Breakfast and lunches at meeting and Gala Dinner included (Other meals not covered by the stipend).

II. Criteria for Candidates include:

- Be a practicing pathologist for at least 2 years post training;
- Excellent knowledge of English (course is in English)
- Two letters of support from colleagues;
- Submission of Curriculum Vitae;
- Personal statement to include:
  - Reason for wanting to attend
  - Current practice characteristics e.g. academic, private hospital
  - Number of cases signed out in the last year.
  - Opportunities to share knowledge learned with colleagues or trainees
  - Statement of need

NOTE: Timeline for application is short. The sooner the applications are forwarded to us, the better.

The Division of Scholarships
Ministry of Education, or call Samuel G. Williams on 0770421201 for more information.